VERSES OF THE WEEK

Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.”
- Revelation 19:9

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-10

In today's gospel Jesus tells the high priests and elders that the kingdom of Heaven is like a king who invites many people for the wedding feast of his son. When the feast was ready, he sends his servants to call them. But they ignored and went away for their own business. Two times the king send his servants to call them. But few of his servants were maltreated and even killed by them. The king became angry and send troops to burn off their cities. The king later asked his servants to go to the streets and gather everyone whom they found. The hall was filled with guests. The king came to see his guests. But among the guests he found one man without wedding garment. He ordered his servants to throw him out to the darkness.

Through the parable Jesus reminds us that the king is the Father in heaven who is inviting each of us through our baptism to be clothed in Christ His son and enter the great feast of the kingdom of heaven. ARE WE RESPONDING TO HIS INVITATION? OR ARE WE IGNORING HIS INVITATION BY OUR BUSY LIVES? If so, let us think of what happened to the invitees who ignore the king's invitation.

If we have responded, then let us prepare ourselves keeping on our cloth by living in holy spirit, our guide who helps us to live as Jesus says, through sacraments; that prepares us to heaven. Let us pray for the grace of God to understand the Joy of being in heaven and let us prepare and get ready for the great feast- the kingdom of Heaven.

Let us Pray,

Dear lord Jesus, thank you for inviting us to your great feast- the kingdom of heaven and making us the citizens of heaven by your great sacrifice. Give us grace to live always clothed in you to be found worthy when you come to take us for the great feast in heaven. In Jesus' name we pray ,Amen
